First Quarter V

In the absence of our esteemed President Noel, it appears that it falls to the assistant editor to fill this space.

Last week on Monday 3rd September 2018, Tony Bowlen stood in for Noel and Marcia took the role of Chairman for the Day.

Our guest speaker Joanne Taylor gave us a most informative presentation on Safe Steps, which is Victoria’s 24/7 family violence support service, designed to support women and children to be free from family violence.

It works through the three stages of Response, Recovery and Prevention. Joanne presented guidelines on assessing whether a relationship is healthy or not and on the different forms of abusive behaviour that can occur.

In 2017-2018 the Centre answered 100,000+ support calls and provided 31,000+ bed nights in safe emergency accommodation, in addition to a significant amount of material aid to those in need.

Humour
Two police officers crash their car into a tree. After a moment of silence, one of them says, “Wow, that’s got to be the fastest we ever got to the accident site.

Thought for the Week
Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed, citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.” — Margaret Mead

More humour:–
Donald Trump is walking out of the White House and heading for his limo, when a possible assassin steps forward and aims a gun.

A secret service agent, new on the job shouts, “Mickey Mouse!” This startles the would be assassin and he is captured.
Later the secret service agent’s supervisor takes him aside and asks, “What in the world made you shout “Mickey Mouse?”
Blushing the agent replies, “I got nervous, - I meant to shout Donald, Duck!”
